KANSAS LEGISLATIVE INSIGHTS NEWSLETTER | MAY 19, 2023

Thursday, speculation ended about the fate of SB 113 (K-12 budget and education policy bill) when Gov. Laura Kelly signed it into law. There were several line-item vetoes, including one that prevented loss of base state aid to some rural school districts. There will be ongoing debate regarding whether the governor can line-item veto policy matters in an appropriations bill. SB 113 was the final item of business concluding the 2023 Legislature. The House and Senate adjourned sine die on April 28. The Kansas Legislature will reconvene on Monday, Jan. 8, 2024.

Kansas Legislative Insights is a publication developed by the Governmental Affairs & Public Policy Law practice group of Foulston Siefkin LLP. It is designed to inform business executives, human resources and governmental relations professionals, and general counsel about current developments occurring in current Kansas legislation. Published regularly during the Kansas legislative session, it focuses on issues involving healthcare, insurance, public finance, taxation, financial institutions, business & economic development, energy, real estate & construction, environmental, Agribusiness, employment, and workers compensation.
